THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 16, 1861.

A FEW THOUGHTS .- The barnessing of the Precipitationists in Virginia has been one of the most tedious things of the sort Byren J. Corbin and Emma V. Corbin, the last at 12 o'clock, M., ON SATURDAY, the 6th day we have ever witnessed. They have not done plunging yet. It is like taking pigs to a new pen. They squeal the whole dis-

They have had things their own way so long, that they don't understand the functions of a minority. We recommend to our conservative friends to exercise patience with them, they will become acclimated after-

On the other hand, we would kindly point out to all thoughtful fire-caters the atter injudiciousness of making a rumpus.

What we love in this dear Republican government of ours, is the beauty one sees in a peaceful submission to majorities. There was the old Whig party that used to be, which year after year used to get beat-but whoever heard of their kicking at the folks in the wagon? They just quietly pulled. Now, here is an example to our dear brethren .--Try and feel reconciled. After we arrange about the Union, we will see what we can do for you. The first cut of adversity's whip. we know, stings a little, but you have heard about the eels.

Your idea was to go out about the 4th of March, and then reconstruct; but you see how futile this would have been. The Gulf States are dead against re-construction. If we had followed your advice, we should have all been out now, and never would have got back. By our course-you see how the things works.

Another good thing is the extinction of all the old party feeling that used to curse us in Virginia. See Douglas and Crittenden side by side: James Barbour and Mr. Flournov: Mason and Boteler. Rockingham elects a Whig. Augusta elects a Democrat. Isn't this beautiful? Whigs and Democrats standing shoulder to shoulder to save the Union, -if that be possible. The Democrats stood up nobly for the Union. They sunk all party and voted for Whigs-and we shan't forget

All of us combined against you Extremists -and we must necessarily keep the breaks on

A Plucky lot of gentlemen will make a good minority in the long run. After awhileabout twelve years-after you have been mellowed by a little government, you will come in again. Some of you will be dead by then, but if you do right, you will go to bea-

Here is a programme at once. From time to time we may continue to point out to you the line of promise that lies before you. An revoir .- Charlottesville Re-

CAUTLE ON RAILROADS. -- An important decision, involving the rights and liabilities of railway companies and the owners of cattle killed by trains when on the track, has just been made by Chief Justice Gilpin, of the State of Delaware. Four main points were made by the learned judge, and were established by his decision as the law of his particular jurisdiction, to wit:

1. That a railroad company, legally chartered, has the unobstructed right of way its own road.

2. That it cannot be held in damages for any loss which owners of eattle may sustain, if their cattle are killed or injured while upon the track, and when due dilligence and caution are observed on the part of those in charge of the train to prevent said destruction or injury.

3. That the company is not bound to fence in the lands of farms along the line of road merely for the sake of keeping cattle off the track; but that is the duty of owners of cattle to see that such cattle do not interfere with, and obstruct the passage of trains, and thus become trespassers. 4. That persons who suffer their animals to roam at large upon the track to the detriment of the travel by obstructing the road, are liable in a suit for trespass thereof.

THE FOREIGN IMMIGRATION .- The Commissioners of Emigration of New York, in their annual report to the Legislature of that State, note the diminished number of emigrants arriving at the port of New York, as well as elsewhere in the United States last year, and their improved condition, both in respect of health and means. There was no severe or general epidemic disease prevailing among the emigrants either on shipboard or on landing. The whole number of passengers landed at the port of New York during the year 1860 was 155,371, viz: From Ireland, 47,350; from England, 11.361; and 8,572 from other countries. Of these, 50,209 were citizens or persons not subject to bond or commutation, and 105,162 were aliens, for whom commutation was paid or bonds executed showing an increase in alien emigrants of 25,840 more than in 1859, and 26,573 more than in 1858, but being 78,611 less than in the year1859, and 37,180 less than in 1856; while the proportion to the average of former years, since 1846, is less than half.

INPECTINE, THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM. POR the prevention and cure of Fever and Aga and Bilions Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler n Persia and the Holy land. While going down theriver Enphrates, he exerionced a severe, attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fecer will touch you," Although incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatenit Court of Fairfax County, rendered at its | man attributed to it miraeulous powers, and said vs. Benjamin Thornton, of which the above is an | the Sun. Sometime atterwards, the gentleman in dice copy, I hereby give notice to all concerned | conversing with a Priest obtained from him the setherein that I have fixed the 30th day of March | cret of its preparation, and ascertained where the next, as the time, and the office of Henry W. | medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. WE WOULD respectfully announce to our customers, and the public generally, that | after Saturday, the 2d of March, we discontinue making a deduction of 10 per cent. on our eash sales, the time advertised for so doing having expired; but, as a large number of our cash customers have always argued that we should offer some inducement to the cash purchaser, which we could not do under the one price system without allowing the same to all cash buyers, we have determined after the above date to make it a general | exclusively, and invite the special attention of the thing with all, and make a deduction of five per cent, on all sales, large and small, which are paid for at the time of purchase. We have a large number of prompt credit customers who have been dealing with us for years, and it will give us pleasure to serve them as heretofore. But we have made the above proposition, believing that it will be to our mutual advantage. By which planwe shall be able to realize more ready money to make our purchases with, and that we shall be able to make up in part (by buying many of our goods for eash) what we shall lose by the deduction of five per cent.

Our GOODS as heretofore will be found marked in plain figures at the lowest market rates, and no abatement will be made except the discount for cash named above. W. M. SHUSTER & CO. Washington, mh 4-dim
